SCHOOL REPORT.

DISTRICT NO. 1.

Summer term taught by Miss Clara B. Gutterson of Milford. Miss Gutterson's reputation as a teacher needs no comment in this report. This was a pleasant and profitable term ; and we think perfectly satisfactory to all concerned.

Winter term taught by Miss Clara H. Blood, of Wilton. Miss Blood possesses rare natural and acquired ability, and has proved herself a very efficient and successful teacher in this school. Teacher and scholars were united in effort for the success of the school.

DISTRICT NO. 2.

This school both Summer and Winter, was under the tuition of Miss Helen M. Hadley of Temple. Miss Hadley labored diligently for the good of her scholars. Good order prevailed in both terms. Improvement satisfactory.

DISTRICT NO. 3.

Summer term taught by Miss Minnie I. Burton, of Temple. Miss Burton was very successful in the management of this school. She was faithful to her charge and gave general satisfaction.

The Winter term was also commenced by the same teacher. But, after two weeks successful teaching, Miss Burton was obliged to give up the school on account of ill health.

The remainder of the term was taught by Miss Sarah C. Law of Lawrence, Mass. This was Miss Law's first school. She is well qualified as an instructor, and labored diligently for the welfare of her pupils. There was a lack of discipline in this school, yet the scholars made fair progress in their studies.

DISTRICT NO. 4.

Both terms of this school were taught by Miss Emma R. Holt, of Wilton. This was her first attempt at teaching.

Miss Holt possessing the requisite qualifications for successful teaching, taught a good school, and the proficiency made by the scholars was creditable to them and their teacher.

DISTRICT NO. 5.

Summer term taught by Miss Clintie A. Burton, of Temple. Miss Burton is a teacher of experience and taught a good school.

Miss Burton, also taught the Winter term. In this term as in the previous one, she succeeded in maintaining excellent order. At the examination her pupils gave evidence of thorough drill in all branches pursued.

DISTRICT NO. 6.

Summer term taught by Miss Elmina S. Heald, of Temple. Miss Heald, as usual, made this school pleasant and profitable to all.

The Winter term was taught by the same teacher. In this school Miss Heald labored diligently to interest her pupils in their studies, and those who attended regularly made rapid progress.

With thanks to teachers, for their earnest efforts, and citizens, for their kind and friendly forbearance, this report is submitted.
